1 Read Tina's email. Answer the questions. /Přečti si článek a odpověz celou větou na otázky/.

Hi Carol,

I was on a seaside holiday in Ireland last week with my family. I didn't enjoy the holiday because a lot of horrible things happened. First, my brother forgot his passport, and we missed our plane to Dublin. Mum was angry and shouted at him. Luckily, there was another plane and we got that. When we picked up our luggage in Dublin, my dad's suitcase wasn't there. In the end, it arrived by taxi the next day.

We took a bus to our campsite. We arrived late, and we were very tired. We put up our tents in the dark, but in the middle of the night my tent fell down. I took my sleeping bag and slept in the shower block.

The next day we went on a boat trip to an island. The trip took two hours and I felt seasick all the time. When we arrived, it started to rain. We sat in a café all morning, and then we got an early boat back. It wasn't much fun! For two days nothing horrible happened. Then, at the airport, someone stole my rucksack with my camera in it.

I was really pleased to get home!

SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS

In a far away kingdom a prince's daughter grows up happily. She is very pretty with blue eyes and long fair hair. She has a smooth fair skin so everybody calls her Snow White. Everyone agrees that she is very beautiful. She has an evil and jealous stepmother who has a magic mirror. She is very beautiful, too. Her magic mirror tells her this everyday when she asks it.

"Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the most beautiful of all?" says the stepmother. "You are, my dear lady" it replies. Days, months and years pass by and one day the mirror says "Snow White is the most beautiful of all." The stepmother is very angry and jealous. She starts making plans to get rid of Snow White. She calls a servant and says "I promise to give you a reward. Take Snow White to the deep forest and kill her." The greedy servant agrees this plan and takes Snow White away from the castle to the deep forest. When they arrive at the spot, the man changes his mind because she is so beautiful and innocent. He runs away leaving her in the forest alone.

Night comes but the servant doesn't return. Snow White begins to cry sadly. She is scared and tired. Finally, she falls into sleep under a tree.

She wakes up with the morning sun and hears the birds singing all around. She isn't scared anymore because she can see everything clearly. She tries to find her way to the castle and she finds a path. She follows it hopefully. After some time she comes across a strange cottage. It has a small door and windows. She is puzzled because everything in this cottage is smaller than normal. She knocks at the door but there is no answer. She pushes the door and it opens.

She looks at the tools in the kitchen and says "I wonder who lives here?". "What small spoons and plate! There are seven of each item so there must be seven people." She goes upstairs and sees seven little beds. She goes back to the kitchen and cooks soup. She says "When they return home they'll find the dinner ready and become happy."

Towards sunset seven little men march towards home singing. When they open the door they see seven bowls of hot soup on the table. They search around the house and find Snow White sleeping in one of the beds in the bedroom. The eldest dwarf wakes her up gently and asks "Who are you?". Snow White introduces herself and tells her sad story. All the dwarfs listen to her and cry silently. Then one of them says "Why don't you stay here with us?". They all like this idea and start dancing happily. The dwarfs say to the Snow White "You can stay here and look after the house while we are working in the mine. We are sorry for your stepmother. We really love you and we can take care of you" Snow White likes this idea and decides to stay with the seven dwarfs. In the morning the dwarfs warn Snow White before leaving for work. "Don't open the door to strangers and be very careful."

Meanwhile, the servant goes back to the castle with a deer's heart in his hand. He gives it to the stepmother and says it belongs to Snow White. He wants his reward. The stepmother smiles gladly and turns again to the magic mirror. The magic mirror replies "The most beautiful lady on earth is still Snow White, who lives with the seven dwarfs in a small cottage in the deep forest." The stepmother is very furious.

"She must die! She must die at once!" she screams. She disguises herself as a very old woman and puts a big poisonous apple into a basket full of apples. She goes to the forest and finds the cottage.

Snow White is making the beds when she hears a knock at the door. "Who's that?" she asks.

"I am an woman. I sell apples." replies the stepmother.

"I don't want any apples, thanks anyway" she replies.

"But these apples are the most delicious apples and they are so fresh." says the stepmother in a soft voice.

"I mustn't open the door to anyone" says the little girl unwillingly. "You are a good girl because you obey the rules. I want to give you a free apple as a reward."

Without thinking, Snow White opens the door a little and gets her apple. She says "Oh, what a nice red apple!" and bites it. Suddenly she falls to the ground. She looks lifeless so the stepmother laughs wildly and runs away. On the way to the castle she falls into a quicksand. She cries for help but nobody hears her. She disappears in a few minutes.

After a while the dwarfs come back home and find Snow White in the doorway, lifeless. They also see the poisonous apple near her. They try to wake her up but it's useless.

They cry for a long time. Then they lay her on a bed of roses, daffodils, daisies and tulips and put her in a glass coffin. Every day they bring flowers to her and weep.

One day, they notice a young handsome man near Snow White's coffin looking at her beautiful face. They learn that he is a prince and tell him the story of Snow White. The prince has an idea. He says "If you let me take her to my castle, I can call talented doctors to treat her. Oh, she is so beautiful that I want to give her a kiss!" He gives a kiss to Snow White and she opens her eyes slowly. Prince's kiss breaks the evil magic in the poisonous apple. She comes back to life.

The dwarfs and the prince hop up and down with joy. The prince is so charmed by her beauty that he asks her to marry him. Snow White accepts to marry him and they say goodbye to the seven dwarfs.

From that day on Snow White and the prince live in a big castle happily and they often visit their seven little friends in the deep forest.
